Situated beside the Spanish Steps and Piazza del Popolo, Hotel de Russie is an integral part of Rome.

It’s a fascinating mix of old and new, with modern design that respects the classical architecture of the building.

It’s a green oasis in the very centre of the city, where personal service is delivered with gracious ease.
A ROMAN LANDMARK

When it opened, between 1816 and 1819, the hotel was popular among Russian guests. They liked the mild Roman winters. The Romans called it L’Albergo di Russia. The name became Hotel de Russie when French took off among the aristocracy.

Since its opening, aristocratic travellers, Russian royalty and renowned artists have all passed through our elegant lobby.

We’ve made it even better since then.
Everything that’s great about Rome is within reach.

Located in the city’s very centre, the hotel sits between Piazza del Popolo and Piazza di Spagna. The finest designer boutiques of Via Condotti are a short stroll away. The galleries of Via Margutta, just around the corner.
Like any good hosts, we’re keen to show you around.

Fancy peering through a keyhole to see a kaleidoscopic view of St Peter’s dome at the Knights of Malta’s gate on the Aventine Hill? Experiencing a private tour of Michelangelo’s Sistine Chapel? Exploring the only non-Catholic cemetery in Rome, where John Keats and Percy Shelley are buried? Throwing a coin in the Trevi fountain before an aperitivo in the Centro Storico?

Rome is alive with modern culture too. Explore the MAXXI museum of contemporary art. Tour the Monte Porzio Catone winery and enjoy tastings and al fresco dining.

With so much to do, making the most of your time in Rome means separating the ordinary from the extraordinary. That’s where we come in.

Expertly blended cocktails, shaken and stirred to perfection by our master bartenders. The finest Italian wines, cognacs and Negronis. Healthy beverages and homemade iced tea. The Piazzetta Valadier is the liveliest seat in town. Light Mediterranean dishes are served throughout the day. Cotoletta alla Milanese. Seared prawns with spinach. Lobster salad with orange sauce.
Celebrity Chef Fulvio Pierangelini is renowned for his cacio e pepe ravioli at Le Jardin de Russie.

“The secret to making perfect pasta is that you must have it in your DNA – you must have seen your grandmother and mother prepare it, have a memory of its taste and flavours.”
Olga Polizzi has individually decorated all of our 88 rooms and 34 suites.

Contemporary Italian style. Roman sculptures. Carrara marble and Bisazza mosaic bathrooms. Stunning views of city landmarks or the Valadier Secret Garden.
Explore the Eternal City on a guided running tour with our personal trainer. Or, keep fit in our gym with a range of cardiovascular, weight and resistance equipment.

For a more indulgent way to relax, enjoy a comprehensive range of treatments. Unwind in our Roman-style salt water hydropool, sauna or steam room.
We welcome children of all ages.

Younger ones will enjoy a warm welcome with special treats and our Families R Forte passport. When it’s time to say goodnight, they can cuddle up to a frog teddy and tuck into homemade cookies and milk, all part of our Gian Lorenzo the Frog Turndown Service.

Older ones can ask for films, games consoles or even a bespoke In Room Bar. Our Concierge can also create a personalised city itinerary just for them.
Poet Jean Cocteau and artist Pablo Picasso stayed at our hotel in 1917.

WHEN WRITING TO HIS MOTHER, JEAN COCTEAU DESCRIBED THE HOTEL AS ‘PARADISE ON EARTH’. HE WENT ON TO EXPLAIN HOW HE AND PICASSO LEANT OUT THEIR BEDROOM WINDOWS TO PICK ORANGES FROM THE GARDEN.
Rocco Forte Hotels is different. Our hotel in Berlin is called Hotel de Rome. Our hotel in Rome is the Hotel de Russie. Each hotel is individual because each city is unique.

Our hotels are landmarks right at the very heart of the city, except for our resort, which is suitably remote. They are as much a part of each location’s landscape as the Spanish Steps in Rome or St Isaac’s Cathedral in St Petersburg. They are colourful, characterful buildings with interiors that resonate with the local culture.

While each of our hotels has its own personality, our exacting standards ensure a personal and attentive service that unites them all. As a family who has been in hospitality for four generations, we have a warm-hearted approach that is embraced by our hotels.
YOUR HOSTS:
THE FORTE FAMILY

Our style of service is about being true to our hotels, to our heritage, and to our city. We have done things this way for four generations. You might say it's in our blood.

We are a family of individuals, and our hotels, like us, are all individual too.
