

VERDURA RESORT
SICILY
A ROCCO FORTE HOTEL

Verdura Resort is set on 230 hectares of Sicilian countryside, with its own vegetable garden, orange and olive groves and nearly two kilometres of private Mediterranean coastline. It's a place with a true sense of space, a place where your room will seem woven subtly into the landscape, with uninterrupted views of the sea from your private balcony or terrace. Above all, it's a place where you'll discover an outstanding level of service.

Verdura is located on the south-west coast of Sicily, a perfect position for exploring the island. The seaside town of Sciacca, renowned for his Carnival, and the orange groves of Ribera, sit next to the resort. The Valley of the Temples in Agrigento and the Temple of Selinunte are both just a 40-minute drive away. The capital, Palermo, is just over an hour's drive, and the Aeolian, Egadi and Pelagian islands can easily be reached by helicopter.
