

VILLA IGIEA
PALERMO

A ROCCO FORTE HOTEL

BETWEEN THE CITY AND THE SEA...

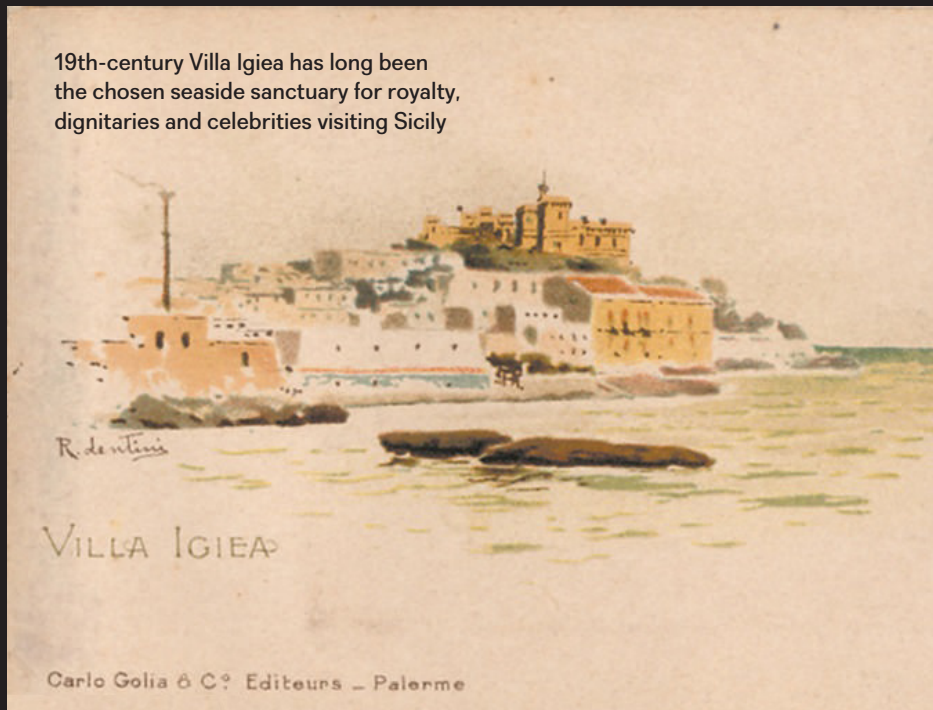

A timeless turn-of-the-century palazzo, storied Villa Igiea sits amidst enchanting Palermo, lush Mount Pellegrino and the turquoise Tyrrhenian Sea. From here, explore Palermo's bustling markets, Baroque palaces and ancient sites. Sail Sicily's picturesque coast. Dine on spectacular Sicilian cuisine. And discover Villa Igiea's sweeping gardens and palatial Art Nouveau interior, reborn as a Rocco Forte hotel.

Designed by esteemed Palermo architect Ernesto Basile, the hotel remains a sanctum for travellers to Italy's largest island today

Verdant villa gardens lead down to a port, prime for coastal voyages and expeditions out to sea

The restaurant terrace, where celebrity Chef Fulvio Pierangelini masterminds a menu of fresh, flavourful, unmistakably local fare

"Villa Igiea is an iconic hotel with the Florio family at its origin. I am delighted that my family will now have its place in the building's marvellous history"

Sir Rocco Forte

A classical framework with contemporary accents, Villa Igiea sees Sicilian antiquity meet signature Rocco Forte hospitality

Sea blues and sea views: the breeze whips off the Mediterranean, keeping suites as fresh as they look
