A GUEST OF THE FAMILY

In much more than name, Rocco Forte Hotels is the Forte family. At its helm are Sir Rocco, his sister and his three children. Behind it are four generations of Forte hoteliers. It is in every way a family business, a shared love evident in every Rocco Forte hotel – each exuding their innate Anglo-Italian style, sophistication and warmth.

Set in Puglia’s sun-soaked countryside – between Fasano, UNESCO-listed Alberobello and the sparkling Adriatic Sea – Masseria Torre Maizza is a Rocco Forte hotel like no other. A traditional 16th century farmhouse transformed into an intimate Apulian hotel, every element channels the charm and character of its surrounds. Inside, an elegant aesthetic under original domed ceilings. Just 40 rooms and suites, each individual, each exceptional – from the torre’s sea views to private plunge pools. Sage greens bring the lush landscape in, local ceramics accent white-washed walls.

Outside, verdant gardens, ancient olive groves and vivid bougainvillea. Citrus scents from orange and lemon trees. A vast swimming pool flanked by vine-wreathed pergolas. Secret shaded spots for stolen moments amid nature. Dining at Carosello: fresh, flavourful, distinctly regional food by Fulvio Pierangelini, imbued with Puglia’s spirit, taken from its land. A nine-hole golf course, Irene Forte Spa and private beach club. An invocation to explore, restore and immerse yourself in the rustic romance of southern Italy from this truly special Rocco Forte Hotel.

In the heart of the hotel's walled gardens,
a poolside bar and restaurant for savouring
Puglia's fresh food in the open air

Bougainvillea bar, serving distinctive local flavours from light lunches to aperitivo hour and after-dinner digestivi

Individually designed by Olga Polizzi, rooms and suites integrate contemporary accents into the farmhouse's original Apulian architecture

"Torre Maizza is charming – very peaceful, restful and romantic"

Olga Polizzi
