HISTORY OF BROWN'S HOTEL

Brown's Hotel has a fascinating history and has hosted many distinguished guests since it opened as London's first ever hotel in 1837. It is from here that Rudyard Kipling penned many of his novels and it is believed that The Drawing Room was the inspiration for Agatha Christie's 'At Bertram's Hotel.' To this day, this chic, five-star establishment welcomes guests "in-the-know."

Brown's Hotel personifies the refined sophistication of modern British luxury. Each room and suite is individually decorated and many feature antiques and contemporary artworks, creating an elegant and fashionable air.

The menus at Charlie's celebrate British culinary heritage with creative, contemporary flair, while embracing a bygone era of service; our award-winning Afternoon Tea is ideal for those seeking a quintessential English experience. A luxurious spa and state-of-the-art gymnasium offer a discreet sanctuary within this vibrant city. Afternoon tea is legendary at Brown's and we hope that you will remember it forever.

THE HISTORY OF AFTERNOON TEA

Tea consumption increased dramatically during the early nineteenth century. At the time it was usual for people to take only two main meals a day, breakfast and dinner at around 8 o'clock in the evening. The Duchess of Bedford, lady in waiting to Queen Victoria, started the practice of taking a pot of tea and light meal, privately in her boudoir during the afternoon. Later friends were invited to join her for "tea and a walk in the fields."

Other social hostesses quickly picked up on the idea and the practice became respectable enough to move it into the drawing room. Before long all of fashionable society was sipping tea and nibbling sandwiches in the middle of the afternoon.

This tradition has developed over the years. We recommend that guests begin their afternoon tea with finger sandwiches, followed by warm scones with clotted cream and homemade strawberry jam, concluding with seasonal pastries.

SEASONAL TEA LIBRARY

Designed for those who seek out the highest quality, Brown's Seasonal Tea Library is the Chinese tea ceremony of Gong Fu. This places the taste and appreciation of the tea itself above all else.

The ceremony involves the ritualised presentation of the tea.

Using a small volume teapot over multiple infusions allows for the ultimate engagement, the small pitcher is there to decant your tea between infusions, ensuring a perfectly balanced cup and allowing your leaves to breathe before the next infusion.
