

Tradition has it that Afternoon Tea was 'invented' by Anna Maria, the seventh Duchess of Bedford, who in 1841 popularised the ritual of drinking tea and having a bite to eat in the afternoon, to tide her over until dinner. This swiftly developed into a social occasion which is as popular today as it was back then.

Rare Tea Company is an independent business based in London. The company was founded in 2004, by Henrietta Lovell (known as the Tea Lady), to source and supply the world's best tea - direct from farmers and their tea gardens
