A ROCCO FORTE HOTEL

A GUEST OF THE FAMILY

In much more than name, Rocco Forte Hotels is the Forte family. At its head are Sir Rocco, his sister Olga and his three children. Behind it are four generations of Forte hoteliers.

It is in every way a family business; a shared love evident in every Rocco Forte hotel – each exuding the Forte's innate Anglo-Italian style, sophistication and warmth.

As their guest at Rome's Hotel de Russie, you will see the family's philosophy brought to life. Their instinct for choosing an unparalleled address, stood between Piazza del Popolo and the Spanish Steps. One that is iconic in its own right, its blush render, tiered terraces and sprawling Secret Garden deemed paradise on Earth by Jean Cocteau; known today as home to Rome's liveliest aperitivo hour. Their talent for taking an illustrious, established site and making it modern: Roman sculptures and prints, dashes of colour and Italianate mosaics gilding a light, elegant and understated space.

This you will see, but some things must be felt. The sincere, attentive interest and understanding of its team. The inviting sense of openness and ease. Total tranquillity and privacy against the backdrop of the buzzing Eternal City. And the cinematic, dolce vita air that fills Rome infusing the hotel.

The hotel was designed in the early 1800s by architect Giuseppe Valadier, who also developed Piazza del Popolo, which Hotel de Russie overlooks

"They say Rome is 'eternal', and there is no city where you live side by side with antiquity as you do here"

Sir Rocco Forte

The top-floor Nijinsky Suite enjoys spectacular views of the Villa Borghese gardens and across the Eternal City

The 100m² Popolo Suite, whose wraparound terrace looks out over its namesake, Piazza del Popolo

Stravinskij Bar, the city's most celebrated cocktail spot, beloved for its imaginative drinks menu and sleek design

Jean Cocteau and Pablo Picasso stayed here, in adjoining rooms, while preparing to stage
the first ever Cubist ballet "Parade" in 1917

A long, elegantly set dining table is the centerpiece of the image, covered with a white tablecloth and surrounded by green outdoor chairs. The table is set with white plates, glassware, and cutlery, and is adorned with several small, glowing candles and a large, vibrant floral centerpiece. The setting is a garden pergola, with a stone balustrade and lush greenery in the background. Numerous warm, glowing lanterns hang from the pergola's structure, creating a romantic and intimate atmosphere. The overall scene is captured at night, with the warm light of the lanterns contrasting with the dark surroundings.

*"Italian cuisine is all about regionality.
Here, our guests can enjoy authentic,
Roman dishes in our stunning
Secret Garden"*
