

BROWN'S HOTEL
LONDON

A ROCCO FORTE HOTEL

Your Wedding Journey

Steps from the glittering Royal Arcades. Bond Street a stroll away. The tailors of Savile Row just around the corner. Brown's Hotel stands among Mayfair's finest landmarks.

Generations of guests have celebrated the beginning of their lives together here – and when you do, you join luminaries such as Theodore Roosevelt, whose wedding certificate still hangs in the hotel today.

Named in his honour, the Roosevelt Room is ideal for up to 40 guests. The Clarendon Room suits larger celebrations, while the Niagara Room offers an enchanting setting for a personalised ceremony.

All three are uniquely designed, with ample natural light, hand-painted wallpaper and views of Mayfair's distinguished streets. Adjoining rooms can be booked together, so you can host your ceremony in one space and drinks reception in another, moving seamlessly from formal to social occasions.

Whether for wedding or civil ceremonies, our tailored packages include a dedicated event coordinator, table settings and florist consultation. We're here to help you create the perfect wedding, to the very last detail.

London

Few cities do romance like London, and few addresses are as captivating as Brown's Hotel. It has stood at the heart of this most storied neighbourhood since 1837, welcoming those who appreciate individual design and a heartfelt welcome.

The city's finest shops, galleries and restaurants lie just beyond the door, and the rooms are thoughtfully laid out for the utmost comfort. Easily accessible from London's major airports and with valet parking, Brown's is a natural meeting place for guests travelling to share in your celebration.

The Perfect Setting

Brown’s Hotel has long been the backdrop to great love stories. Its Georgian townhouse proportions, considered personal service and discreet Mayfair address create an atmosphere that is at once intimate and impressive. Our beautifully appointed private rooms offer a sense of occasion that few venues can match, whatever the scale of your plans/the size of your guest list.

At the heart of every celebration is the food and drink. Our seasonal British menus, created by Michelin-starred Chef Director Adam Byatt, bring the same distinction to your wedding day as they do to our celebrated restaurant.

Clarendon Room

Named after Clarendon House, once the grandest residence on Piccadilly, the Clarendon Room is the most expansive event space at Brown's. Hand-painted botanical wallpaper gives the room its character, while mirrored panels reflect the candlelight, heightening the romance of evening celebrations.

Seating up to 70 guests for a wedding breakfast or ceremony, the room is accessed via a private entrance from Dover Street, ensuring total privacy.

Roosevelt Room

Theodore Roosevelt, the future President of the United States of America, stayed here before his 1886 wedding to Edith Kermit Carow. Later, his niece Eleanor Roosevelt and Franklin D. Roosevelt chose Brown's for their honeymoon, a wonderfully romantic association that endures to this day.

Large windows overlook fashionable Albemarle Street, while a statement chandelier and antique furnishings lend the room a romantic character.

To hold your ceremony in the Roosevelt Room is to become part of a story more than a century in the making.

Niagara Room

For those who prefer a more intimate gathering, the Niagara Room offers an atmosphere of warmth and elegance. Moss-green hues, an abundance of light, and views over historic Albemarle Street make it an enchanting setting for a small ceremony or wedding breakfast. Personal, peaceful and beautifully appointed, it is the ideal choice for couples who want every guest to feel close to the moment – and to each other.
