A ROCCO FORTE HOTEL

A GUEST OF THE FAMILY

In much more than name, Rocco Forte Hotels is the Forte family. At its head are Sir Rocco, his sister Olga and his three children. Behind it are four generations of Forte hoteliers.

It is in every way a family business; a shared love evident in every Rocco Forte hotel – each exuding the Forte’s innate Anglo-Italian style, sophistication and warmth.

As their guest at Rome’s Hotel de Russie, you will see the family’s philosophy brought to life. Their instinct for choosing an unparalleled address, stood between Piazza del Popolo and the Spanish Steps. One that is iconic in its own right, its blush render, tiered terraces and sprawling Secret Garden deemed paradise on Earth by Jean Cocteau; known today as home to Rome’s liveliest aperitivo hour. Their talent for taking an illustrious, established site and making it modern: Roman sculptures and prints, dashes of colour and Italianate mosaics gilding a light, elegant and understated space.

This you will see, but some things must be felt. The sincere, attentive interest and understanding of its team. The inviting sense of openness and ease. Total tranquillity and privacy against the backdrop of the buzzing Eternal City. And the cinematic, dolce vita air that fills Rome infusing the hotel.

One of Rome's most exclusive restaurants, Le Jardin is famed for its exemplary Italian cuisine by Fulvio Pierangelini

A long, elegantly set dining table is the centerpiece of the image, covered with a white tablecloth and surrounded by green outdoor chairs. The table is set with white plates, glassware, and small lit candles. A large, vibrant floral centerpiece is placed in the middle of the table. The dining area is situated under a pergola structure, with numerous warm-toned spherical pendant lights hanging from above. The background is filled with dense green foliage and a stone wall with a balustrade, creating a secluded and romantic atmosphere.
